

PRESS RELEASE

Hackettstown Republican Club to Host Voter Registration Drive at Colonial Manor

The Hackettstown Republican Club Will Host a Voter Registration Drive at the Colonial Manor Residential Senior Care Home in Hackettstown.

Hackettstown, New Jersey (..) August 3, 2022

The Hackettstown Republican Club will be hosting a voter registration drive at the Colonial Manor Residential Senior Care Home in Hackettstown, New Jersey on Sunday August 7th from 10:00am until 12:30pm. The voter registration drive will be held in the Library where all Colonial Manor residents are invited to meet local volunteers who are passionate about voter outreach and building genuine relationships with area residents. Colonial Manor, established in 2011 serving residents 55 years and older, is a perfect place to reach engaged citizens who want to participate in the election process. The paperwork required to register to vote, affiliate with a party or vote by mail will be available to residents to ensure they are registered and ready for the upcoming elections.

The Hackettstown Republican Club has been reorganized and reformed in 2022. The club has a long history in Hackettstown with the organization originally formed in 1947 and making important contributions to the community for 70 years. The purpose of the club is to provide a forum for Republicans to be actively involved in the Republican Party and in the political process.

For more information on the Hackettstown Republican Club visit www.hackettstownrepublican.club or reach out to contact@hackettstownrepublican.club